affiliated to the Scottish Federation of Organists (SFO) and the Incorporated Association of Organists (IAO)

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).

2. Who are we?

Tayside Organists' Society (hereafter "the Society") is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Society complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

Tayside Organists' Society, the SFO and the IAO use personal data for the following purposes: -

- to administer membership records;
- to promote the interests of the associations;
- to maintain their own accounts and records;
- to inform members of news, events and activities of the Society, the SFO and the IAO.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The GDPR states that explicit consent of the data subject is required so that the Society can keep its members informed of news, events, and activities of the Society, the SFO and the IAO.

5. Sharing your personal data

Personal data will be treated as strictly confidential. The Society, the SFO and the IAO will never share personal data with third parties without your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Society, the SFO and the IAO keep personal data for as long as you remain in the membership of the Society, and as required for legitimate purposes.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- the right to request a copy of your personal data which the Society holds about you;
- the right to request that the Society corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- the right to request that your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Society to retain such data;
- the right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- the right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.

8. Further processing

If the Society wishes to use members' personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then the Society will provide members with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions.

9. Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries or complaints, in the first instance please contact the Society Secretary at secretary@taysideorganists.org or by post to Cragmount, Kirkton of Balmerino, Newport on Tay DD6 8SA.

Members can contact the Information Commissioner's Office on 0303 123 1113 or via email <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/> or at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire. SK9 5AF.
